

Discover the new Diploma of Creative Design leading to a Bachelor degree at Australia's No.1 University. Only available for the February 20 intake.

The ANU Diploma of Creative Design is an exciting new pathway enabling students to progress to ANU and pursue their passion for creativity.

Students will be prepared with the skills and knowledge required to progress into the second year of a Bachelor of Design at The Australian National University.

Don't miss out on enrolling your students today!

For more information about the ANU Diploma of Creative Design talk to your Study Group representative or visit